

Dr. Lo Wai Kwok awarded “Bronze Bauhinia Star”

Prior to the appointment as a Justice of the Peace (JP) by the HKSAR government in 2004, Dr. Lo Wai Kwok, Deputy Chairman and Managing Director, has been awarded the Bronze Bauhinia Star (BBS) in 2009 in recognition of his meritorious public and community service, particularly in local District, and for his contribution to the Electronics and Engineering sector.

Dr. Lo has been providing advisory services for the tertiary education institutions for years. He is now an Adjunct Professor at the City University of Hong Kong, and Guest Professor of the University of Electronic Science and Technology Zhongshan College.

Currently, Dr. Lo is the appointed member of the Sha Tin District Council. Besides his distinguished contribution to the industrial, engineering and technology sectors, he was awarded both the “Young Industrialist Awards of Hong Kong” and the “Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection” in 1992, which are attributed to his dedicated participation in several organisations and groups.
